

Adding new Demo-Account

To add a new demo account, you need to log in your cabinet. In the "Cabinet" menu click "Add Account" item:

You'll see the following dialog window:

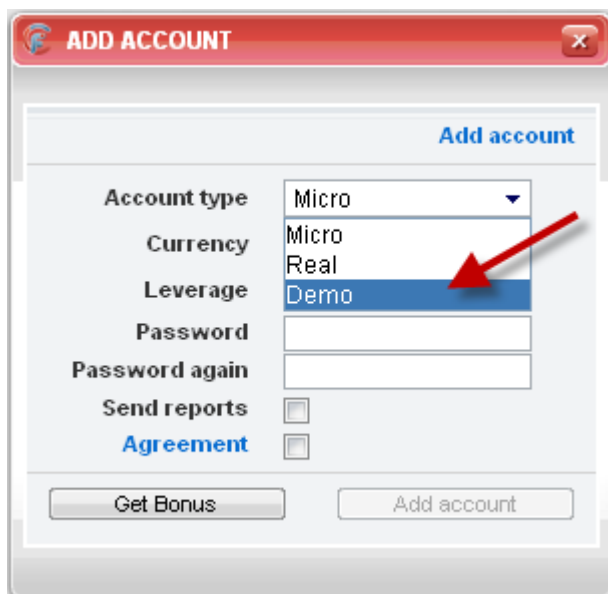

A screenshot of a dialog window titled 'ADD ACCOUNT'. The window contains a form with the following fields and controls:

- Account type: A dropdown menu with 'Micro' selected.
- Currency: A dropdown menu with 'USD' selected.
- Leverage: A dropdown menu with '100' selected.
- Password: A text input field.
- Password again: A text input field.
- Send reports: A checkbox.
- Agreement: A checkbox.

At the bottom of the form, there are two buttons: 'Get Bonus' and 'Add account'.

You need to fill all the fields using your desired values: select the “Demo” item from the “Account type” menu, select the desired currency of your future demo-account, select the leverage and type the password of the demo-account.

The most important moment here is to select a “Demo” account type, otherwise you’ll open a real account type.

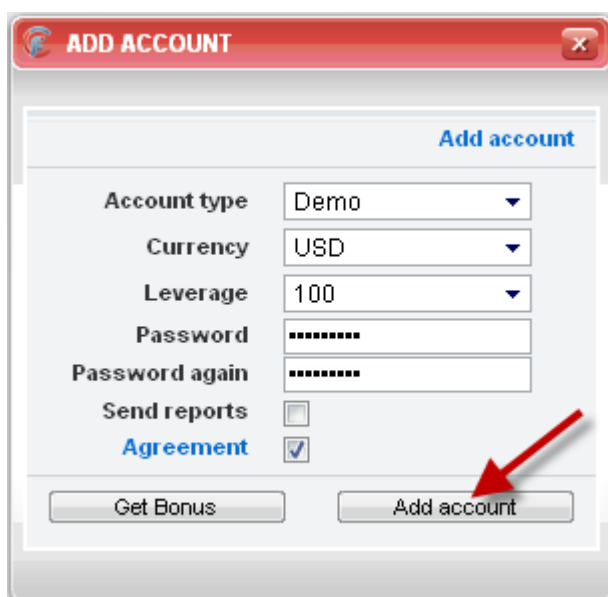

The screenshot shows the 'ADD ACCOUNT' window with the 'Account type' dropdown menu open. The menu options are 'Micro', 'Real', and 'Demo'. A red arrow points to the 'Demo' option, which is highlighted. The other fields (Currency, Leverage, Password, Password again, Send reports, Agreement) are empty. The 'Get Bonus' and 'Add account' buttons are at the bottom.

After you have selected all the desired values, you need to read the client agreement. This client agreement contains all the rules, you need to follow when using the demo-account. If you agree with all conditions described here, you need to check the “Agreement”.

If you want to receive reports about your demo-account state, when check the “Send reports”.

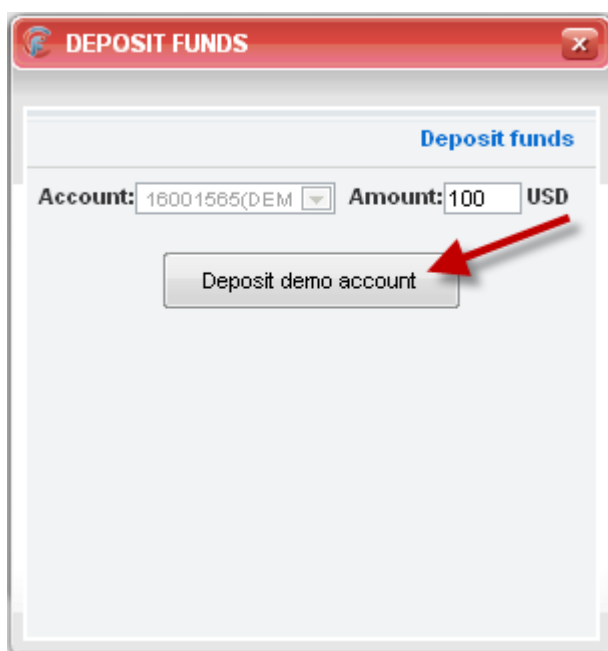

Also you can to get familiar with ForexCent bonus program by clicking the “Get Bonus” button.

After you have selected all the desired values, click the “Add account” button:
