

For registration on www.forexcent.com , it is necessary to make some following simple procedures:

You will find the button in the top right corner with the name «Register / Login».

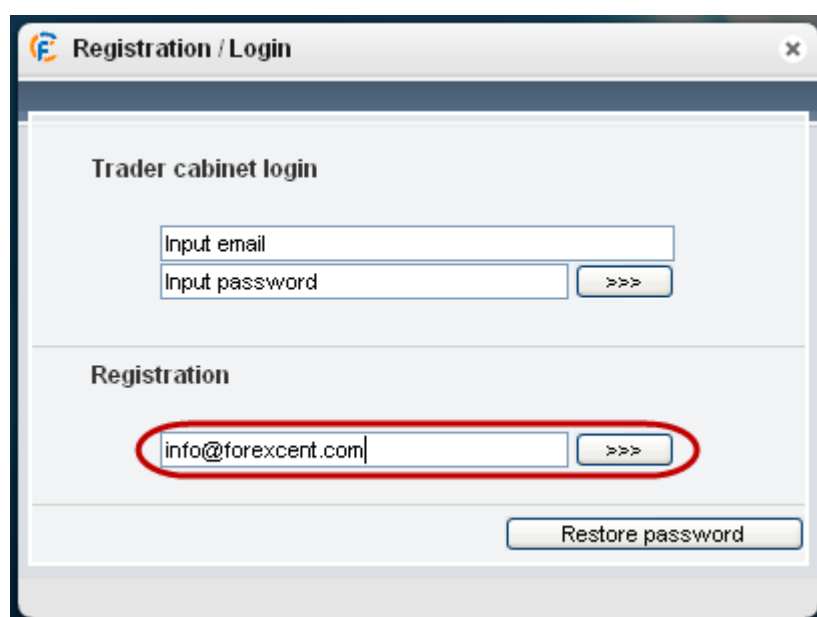

To start registration, it is necessary to press it once.

After you have pressed the button «Register / Login», you'll see a small window.

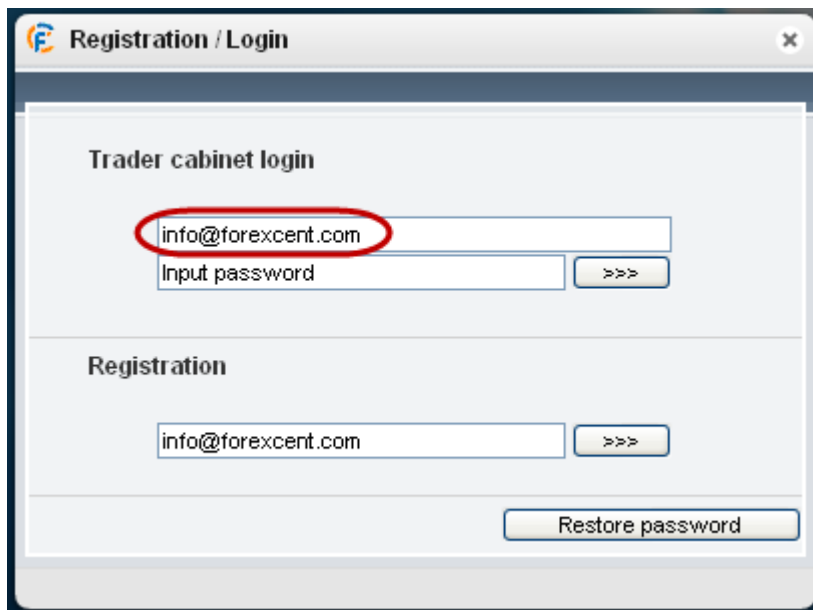

The given window is necessary for trader login into the trader office on the site www.forexcent.com . In the beginning you haven't your own trader office account.

To create the office of the trader account, enter in the field under an inscription «Registration», the name of the electronic mail box:

After you have entered the name of the electronic mail box, press the button to the right of the mail box name.

After you have pressed the button, the form will have a following view:

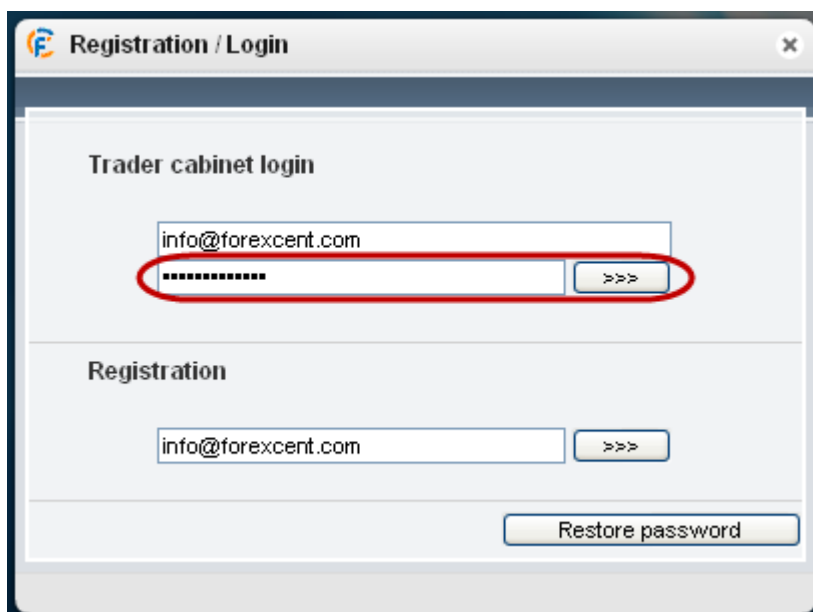

The screenshot shows a web window titled "Registration / Login". It contains two main sections: "Trader cabinet login" and "Registration". In the "Trader cabinet login" section, the email input field contains "info@forexcent.com" and is circled in red. Below it is a password input field labeled "Input password" and a button with three right-pointing chevrons ">>>". The "Registration" section below it has an email input field containing "info@forexcent.com" and a similar ">>>" button. At the bottom of the window is a button labeled "Restore password".

In this case your email is in the first field. Under an inscription «Trader cabinet login». It means that you can come into the office. Only you need is password.

The password is sent to your email.

Now enter your password.

*If you have missed your password, try to restore it using restore password form. If failed send the message on support@forexcent.com

This screenshot is similar to the previous one, but the password field in the "Trader cabinet login" section now contains masked characters (dots) and is circled in red. The ">>>" button next to it is also circled in red. The rest of the interface remains the same.

After you have written the password, press the button to the right of the password.

There is a form before you which it is necessary to fill with the personal data.

But before this read the client agreement. If you agree with all the conditions, continue.

Attention: All the data should be written Latin letters, without any special symbols. The password should not be less than 4-5 symbols and no more than 9-10 symbols.

The screenshot shows a web browser window titled "Profile". Inside, there's a message: "Before registration please read the public offer agreement: Client agreement (190Kb)". Below this, a note says "Red start () the marked fields are necessary to fill" and "Allowed only latin symbols A-Za-z". The form contains several input fields: "First name", "Last name*", "Live country*" (a dropdown menu showing "Select country"), "Phone*" (a field with a country code dropdown and a number field), "State", "City*", "Address*", "Phone password*", and "Your nickname". At the bottom, there is an "Agreement" checkbox and an "Agree and Save" button.

After the filling of the form it has the following view:

This screenshot shows the same "Profile" form, but now the fields are filled with example data. The "First name" field contains "Sam", "Last name" contains "Jones", "Live country" is set to "Australia", "Phone" is "+61 123456789", "State" is "NSW", "City" is "Melburn", "Address" is "Main Street 1", "Phone password" is "password", and "Your nickname" is "jones". The "Agreement" checkbox is now checked, and the "Agree and Save" button remains at the bottom.

Now check the Agreement if you agree with all the conditions and press "Agree and Save" button.
