

Forex Symbol "#IBM" or "IBM Corporation"

#IBM is CFD on shares of IBM. #IBM is a famous trading instrument at the Forex market.

IBM is the largest international corporation that is leading in the world in the production of software for various technical devices, hardware issue, as well as providing various services in the field of information technology.

IBM was founded in the late 19th century and has a strong development in the invention of counting device, enabling them to quickly make a census of the United States. Subsequently, the company engaged in the production of different products, depending on the needs of the time.

In the second half of the 20th century, IBM began producing computers that have ordered the largest institutions of the United States to solve their problems.

To date, IBM is a huge corporation, which employs 400 thousand people around the world. The annual trade turnover of IBM's U.S. $ 100 billion and net income is $ 15 billion.