

Floating profit / loss is inconclusive profit / loss values ranging up to the closing of positions, depending on market behavior. After closing the position, floating profit / loss is recorded by changing the state of the deposit at the time of closing. This indicator allows you to monitor the current state of open trade, which under certain circumstances is more advantageous to close than to leave open.