

Instant Execution technology is providing the customer the quotes without asking. The client has the opportunity to see them in real time. It allows to begin immediately to implement the necessary trading operations. This mechanism gives the trader the right to engage in financial transactions at a strictly prescribed rates.