

Margin for locked positions is necessary financial security for opening and maintaining locked positions. The margin for each instrument listed in the specifications of contracts for the Company's website. Margin to maintain the locked position is needed as a hedge for the Company in the event of adverse market action and keep the position in case of transfer it the next day.