

The order level is the price specified in the order. The order level is a certain parameter of the order, which is required for its execution. In the case of a pending order level price points to order opening it. In most cases the order level indicates an immediate order execution price.