

Quote currency is the second currency in the currency pair record. Using the quote currency, the Customer has the ability to buy or sell the base currency. Currency quotes denote the cost of the base currency. On the chart quoted currency changes its value in relation to the base, which makes it possible to analyze the market.