Server is a software product from MetaQuotesSoftware - MetaTraderServer 4.xx. This software is used for processing requests and orders, cast by the Client.MetaTraderServer 4.xx. It allows the client to receive all necessary information relating to trading in financial markets in real time. Some restrictions may occur in the event that there are serious reasons for it in the company. With the possible constraints on the information supplied, the Client can find in special sections of the website or by contacting the Customer Service Company. The server is an important link in the chain between you and the Company, at their joint trade activities in the financial markets because it provides the maximum comfort of the client, in collaboration with the Company subject to the special conditions of cooperation between the two parts.