

Forex Symbol «#AXP» or «American Express Company»

American Express Company is the largest American company engaged in the issuance of credit cards, traveler's checks and other financial products. AXP is one of the top 30 companies included in the Dow Jones.

Among the products manufactured by the most famous is the American Express Company Card, which is one of the most trusted credit cards in the world. With this credit card the customer can get a loan without interest for up to 39 days. With this card, the customer can make online purchases, department stores, to rent vehicles, as well as use other useful services to the mass.

American Express Company was founded in the mid-19th century. Today, American Express cards are accepted at more than 130 countries. The company provides specialized services to its customers that actively travel.

Among other things, American Express Company provides services to provide a variety of corporate travel services, financial counseling clients, providing services for the repayment of loans, etc.